What will I learn on this course?

- To develop your pronunciation skills through listening and practice.
- To plan and deliver a short and confident presentation.
- To manage conversation in a range of everyday situations.
- To develop your vocabulary, knowledge of English and listening skills so that you can take an effective part in a group discussion or meeting.

Is this course suitable for me?

This course is for learners who have achieved ESOL Entry 2. This is a qualification course and from the start of this course your tutor will be preparing you for the E3 listening and speaking exam.

If you attend well, and make progress, and pass your exam you will progress to a higher-level course.

You will need to phone 01634 338400 to book an initial assessment before enrolling.

Is there anything I need to know about the course?

You must practise English outside the classroom and spend at least 1.5 hours a week on homework.

- We expect you to attend all lessons so that you make progress.
- Your teacher will give you regular and helpful feedback to help you learn

Will there be additional costs?

This course is free if you meet the funding criteria, i.e you are on a recognised benefit or earning less than £25,000 per annum. You will be required to pay if you don't meet the funding criteria.

You will need:

- A ring binder folder
- An A5 notebook to write in
- A pen and pencil.
- Some learners may have to pay for the ESOL exams.

What could I go on to do after this course?

From the start of the course, you will work towards targets and have regular assessments and reviews of learning. If you progress to the next course, you will prepare to sit a speaking and listening exam at Entry 3. Your teacher will help decide which exams you are ready for. When you have passed the exams at Entry 3 you can move to a higher level.
