

L1 Award in Safeguarding in a L E Learnng

In this Level 1 Safeguarding course, you'll discover how to prevent and detect harm to children and young people. You'll examine different types of abuse, the tell-tale signs, and the procedures that need to be followed to report it. You'll study key legislation which protects young people from harm, as well as how you can help them to stay safe from dangers such as cyber-bullying.

This online learning safeguarding course is essential for those who come into contact with children as part of their working role including voluntary work and those who work with children on a daily basis e.g. teachers, dental staff, nursery nurses, child-minders, foster carers, teaching assistants or administration staff.
