Is this course suitable for me?

This course is suitable for learners who are progressing from the beginners course or those with some computer knowledge wishing to develop new skills.

Is there anything I need to know about the course?

This entry-level course is suitable for those with some prior knowledge of computers and using the Internet. It is a progression from Digital Skills for Beginners. Discover computing in a relaxed and supportive environment and learn how to use a computer in an enjoyable, hands-on way. It is designed to raise confidence and provide a foundation for further study.

A good standard of spoken and written English is required and it is essential to be able to follow and understand verbal and written instructions, write in full sentences using punctuation and be able to plan, draft and proofread your work. You may wish to bring your own fully-charged tablet or laptop after the first week so you can practice on your own device. Note that most of the locations that we use do have Wi-Fi available but the quality cannot be guaranteed. You will need to bring in your mobile phone to create an email address in the first lesson. During the process, they will send a text message with an activation code – note they don't share your number and don't send any other messages. Please bring a pen to make personal study notes. An A4 ring binder to keep handouts in will also be useful.

What could I go on to do after this course?

The follow-on course is Digital Skills for Improvers, which introduces you to word processing and how to lay out a letter or CV. It covers file management, how to find and organise your files and emails plus a recap on attachments.
