

Art Acrylic Painting Level 1B

This is an Art Specialism course level 1B, upon completing this course, learners can progress onto Level 1C but cannot redo this course at the same level or lower-level courses or go back onto general Drawing & painting classes. Learners can book onto any other Art specialism or Creative & Culture courses from 1A upwards.

This follow-up course is designed for learners who have a solid foundation in acrylic painting and want to expand their skills and creative thinking. Focusing on more advanced techniques and mixed media applications, learners will explore complex layering methods, texture development and the use of unconventional tools to achieve dynamic visual effects. The course encourages experimentation with style and subject matter, supporting the creation of a cohesive series of artworks. Through in-depth tutor feedback and critical discussions, you'll refine your artistic voice and work towards producing a more developed and professional body of work.

Start Date: 13 January 2026

What Will I Learn On This Course?

By the end of the course, learners will:

1. Refine drawing skills by applying advanced techniques, including accurate observational studies, complex use of light and shadow, dynamic perspective and balanced composition.
2. Extend painting skills by working confidently with acrylic paints and mixed media to explore advanced techniques such as glazing, impasto, palette knife work and creating layered textures and effects.
3. Produce a cohesive series of at least two to three original artworks that demonstrate a sophisticated application of technical skills and personal artistic expression.

Whether you would like to learn new creative skills or to investigate the possibility of a new art -based career, MAE Community Learning courses can provide you with a stepping stone to progress.

Is This Course Suitable For Me?

This course is ideal for beginners and those with some experience in drawing and painting who wish to develop their skills in acrylic painting. It offers the opportunity to explore materials and techniques, build confidence, and produce original artwork while refining your personal style.

Is There Anything Else I Need To Know About This Course?

Please be aware that whilst this course is practical in nature some sessions will include theory and professional related training such as H&S, risk assessments, public liability etc.

Learners will need the following tools and equipment please do not purchase until you are sure the course will run:

You will need to prepare the following tools and equipment before the start of the course:

- A wider range of acrylic paints, including specialist colours and mediums (e.g., gloss, matte or texture gels
- A variety of brushes suitable for acrylic painting (different shapes and sizes, including flat, round, and filbert brushes)
- A palette for mixing colours (A tear-off stay-wet palette is recommended)
- Palette knives for mixing and creating texture effects
- Canvas boards, larger canvases for advanced projects
- Mixed media materials for experimental techniques (e.g., collage papers, sand, modelling paste)
- A water container and cloths or paper towels for cleaning brushes
- An apron or old clothing to protect against spills

Additional materials may be recommended as the course progresses, and your tutor will advise you before making further purchases.

Will There Be Additional Costs?

Learners are expected to provide their own materials for most activities; however, easels and drawing boards will be available for use. A list of required materials will be shared at appropriate stages of the course. Please consult with the tutor before making significant purchases.
