

Jewellery Design and Making - mixed abil

Join our expert tutor to learn the heritage craft of metal smithing and jewellery making. This course caters to both beginners and experienced learners, providing step-by-step guidance on a set project. The project will be suitable for complete beginners while also providing the opportunity for the more experienced to extend their skills.

Learners will have the chance to personalise their creations, making unique jewellery for themselves or loved ones, all under the supervision of a heritage craft expert. Additionally, learners will adhere to essential health and safety procedures within the studio to ensure a safe crafting environment.
