

Free Sashiko with Read Count Rise 3

If you are aged 19 and want to develop your literacy and numeracy skills, you can access free numeracy courses through 'Read Count Rise' to build your confidence and learn a new skill.

Join our professional tutor in our historic studio and develop your skills in the ancient art of Sashiko. Join this friendly class for peaceful and productive 'Zen - stitching' sessions and develop your Sashiko skills and keep a wellbeing diary to record your progress. All whilst using some basic maths and literacy skills to improve your confidence.

Sashiko is a traditional Japanese hand-stitching technique suitable for all abilities which aims to decorate, strengthen and repair existing fabrics. We will use indigo dyed cloth to replicate that of historical Japan and create samplers of the various patterns which can be used for a further project.

All resources are provided and that includes the fabrics, specialist needles and threads.
