

Free Heritage Open Day Mixed Media Pm

This free session is part of the Heritage Place open days programme.

Learners will work in one of our historic studios to produce a piece of mixed media art based on a still life of heritage items from the Medway Adult Education archives (such as Millinery hat steamers).

Learners will work using a selection of mixed media materials as well as archive papers.

Work will be left at Medway Adult Education to be used as part of our 120 year celebration.
